

ProQuest® Dissertations & Theses Global

Official dissertations repository for the Library of Congress and critical scholarly content

THE LARGEST DATABASE of electronic theses and dissertations available worldwide, ProQuest Dissertations & Theses Global includes 4 million works from more than 3,000 universities all over the world. More than 130,000 works are added annually through an ever-expanding network of global university partners.

ProQuest Dissertations & Theses Global offers an extensive and expanding global collection of dissertations and theses, an important and valuable tool for the university and the researcher in all areas of scholarship. Direct, immediate access to full-text graduate works saves time and money by reducing resources required to secure graduate works through inter-library loan.

Why ProQuest Dissertations & Theses?

Dissertations and theses are essential to scholarship throughout the university. Working with ProQuest, institutions can transform the library's dissertations and theses, make institutional research globally discoverable from trusted databases, and provide on-demand use to authoritative information.

- Dissertations are a crucial form of scholarly communication.
- Dissertations provide great sources for specific areas of research.
- Dissertations are scholarly works based on original research.
- Dissertations test and present new ideas and trends.
- Dissertations contain data and results of lab experiments, fieldwork, surveys, and statistics that are often the basis of journal articles—details journal articles often don't include.
- Dissertations provide valuable context for learning about faculty, institutions, and fellow scholars.

For the researcher, deep coverage and extensive bibliographies uncover sources and ideas that would otherwise be missed. Fast and seamless access to nearly 2 million full-text works and cross-referenced access to scholarly content across the library's online service enhances the research experience in a variety of ways:

- Ideas: uncover the research history of a topic and seek niches for further research.
- Literature reviews: PhD theses contain a full literature review of the research within the topic area.
- Latest research: Graduate works feature the latest trends and most up-to-date topic overviews.
- Depth: PhD theses are often more detailed than journal articles.
- Unique content: Many niche humanities and history theses, for example, may be the only literature on the topic.
- Structure: Find examples of abstracts, how to structure an argument, and how to document research.
